Good evening all...

We've looked at the potential business items (not much new) and, in consideration of their lack of urgency and our Board Members' time, concluded that the WBIA Board Meeting originally scheduled for Thursday, October should best be re-scheduled for November 17. Does that work for everyone? At the November meeting, we'll conclude some year end business and review the status on our on-going projects.

Let me know if anyone does not want to reschedule the October meeting to November 17.

Thank you.
